Abilities Ahead

Incorporating people with disabilities into the workforce

Working through the pandemic

For Gary, 63, Opportunity Partners provided just the right amount of support to help keep him working successfully throughout the pandemic. As a greeter at a Twin Cities Walmart, Gary was considered an essential worker and was entrusted with expanded job duties during COVID-19, checking that customers wore facial coverings and keeping track of numbers entering for capacity limits.

What's more, Gary was a welcome face at the store throughout the uncertainties of the pandemic. "A lot of regulars were glad to see him," his staff noted.

Gary, who experienced partial paralysis following a heart attack and stroke in his 20s, is grateful for non-profit organization Opportunity Partners for originally placing him in the job nearly a decade ago and providing ongoing job coaching to help him be successful over the years.

"Opportunity Partners staff have done a good job through the years of helping me," he said. "I enjoy the people at my job and it gets me out of the house."

Organizations like Opportunity Partners are right here in your community, ready to help people with disabilities find and succeed at jobs and to serve as a resource and disability expert for companies who need assistance finding dedicated employees.

During a time when many companies are struggling to recruit enough workers, our organization can match companies with eager candidates. We also provide assistance with company training, regular job coaching – either onsite or behind the scenes – and are ready to step in and help if any special supports are needed.

In addition to direct placements, Opportunity Partners can also provide supervised teams at your location and can do contract packaging and assembly at our facilities. Contact us today for more information!

“The Ask” is back!!

Twice a year I do the “Ask”. Two Chamber fundraisers means two “Asks.” The fundraisers do a couple of things; it keeps the mission that is the Chamber going strong and it helps us keep our membership dues some of the lowest in the State of Minnesota when it comes to Chambers. I was told by a very wise Chamber member long, long ago . He said, “Pete, you can ask members for donations and support twice a year but don’t ask anymore than that.” I could not agree more. That’s why there are two Chamber fundraisers a year and no more!

I hate to do the Ask but it is necessary so here it is!

The Annual Chamber Golf Tournament is Monday, September 20th at Green Haven Golf Course in Anoka. There are many ways that a member can help. Playing in the tournament is one way. Another is to be a sponsor. Whether that is a team, hole or special event sponsorship. Another is to donate an item for the Silent Auction which is a key piece to the fundraising effort. Lastly, you can donate some promotional items with your name on it to the Golfer Goodie Bag.

Here’s a breakdown on all of those.

Team-We always sell out as we only allow 144 golfers. That’s 2 teams per hole. You can be an Eagle Sponsor and that gets you a 4-some plus a Hole Sponsorship.

Event Sponsorship-There are many options here. Whether that is a Birdie or Park Sponsorship which gets you at a hole on the course. Other Event Sponsorships include everything from the Win All the Spirits Raffle, Putting Contest Sponsor, Beverage Cart Sponsor and a lot more.

Silent Auction Donation-This is a key piece to the fundraiser. Members donate an item and we put it on the Silent Auction. We’ll make sure everyone knows you donated. Hey, just you bidding makes a difference as well. We will be using ClickBid so you can bid whether you attend the event or not! If you have something to donate, just let me know and I’ll come a runnin’!

Golfer Goodie Bag Donation-At the tournament, each golfer gets a goodie bag. Members can put something in the bag. A pen, notepad, kozzie cup or whatever you might have that has your name on it! Get me 150 items and we’ll get you in the bag!

There you go! That is the Ask! This membership has been so incredibly supportive in the past and I thank you for that! I promise this is the last “Ask” of 2021!!!
